(U//~~FOUO~~) Criminal Actors Increasingly Using E-mail Account Compromise Techniques, Stealing Millions in Real Estate Settlement Funds

Criminal Investigative Division

(U//~~FOUO~~) Summary: The FBI assesses criminal actors are increasingly employing various e-mail account compromise (EAC) techniques to target victims, including borrowers, settlement/title companies, real estate agents, and builders, netting millions in illicit proceeds, which are often redirected to US banks, money service businesses, and international accounts in Nigeria, South Africa, China, Ghana, Turkey, and India.

(U//~~FOUO~~) This information was derived from open-source reporting [REDACTED] and FBI investigative information. It updates a previous Intelligence Note published in January 2015 and notes additional victims and the use of internet chat rooms to facilitate schemes.
